

DIGGING DEEPER

Use the following questions for personal study

1. What is your natural response when you're in a difficult time or trial?
2. Remembering is all about moving forward in strength and confidence. How does remembering hopeful times change our attitudes toward current difficulties we experience?
3. God will use difficult times to shape and grow us. Look at the following verses Romans 5:3; James 1:3; 2 Timothy 3:12. How are trials/difficulties valuable for us?
4. It's been said: "The way we look back changes the way we look forward." How would you describe the way you see past events in your life? How do you think God wants you to view those specific events? How has God been in those events to shape and grow you?
5. This week we learned about four strengthening perspectives we need to remember: victories, difficulties, sympathies and sacrifices. Of these four which of these has the greatest potential to help you find strength for living now?
